15. Evaluation criteria

The evaluation criteria consist of two types: the eliminatory criteria and essential criteria.

15.1 Eliminatory Criteria

Evaluation criteria [Evaluation criteria are of two types: the eliminatory criteria and essential criteria. No criterion can be eliminatory and essential at the same time. The aim of these criteria is to identify and reject incomplete offers and substantially not compliant with the conditions laid down in the Tender File, especially with regard to the admissibility of administrative documents, the compliance of the technical offer with the Tender File technical specifications and with the qualification of tenderers. 15.1 Eliminatory criteria The eliminatory criteria set the minimum conditions to be fulfilled in order to be admitted to evaluation following the essential criteria. They should not be the subject of notation. The failure to comply with these criteria shall lead to the rejection of the bidder's offer.

The eliminatory criteria include:

- Absence of bid bond at the opening, stamped and hand-paid bid bond accompanied by the receipt for the deposit made to CDEC;
- Failure to submit, beyond the 48 (forty-eight) hours deadline after the opening of bids, a document of the administrative file deemed non-compliant or absent (except the bid bond);
 - False declarations, fraudulent schemes or forged documents;
- Failure to comply with X essential criteria (X referring to the qualification threshold of technical bids)
- Absence of the sworn statement for not having abandoned contracts during the last three years;
- Failure to comply with bids file format;
- Absence of a quantified unit price in the financial offer;
- Absence of prospectus accompanied by manufacturer's technical sheet produced (where applicable)
- Absence of approval or authorisation of manufacturer, if applicable;
- Absence of own or hired minimum equipment (to be specified by the Project Owner);
- Absence of grading (categorisation) certificate if applicable or the Decision publishing the certified results;
- Absence of an element in the financial offer (submission, BPU, DQE);
- Absence of integrity charter dated and signed

- Absence of the dated and signed commitment statement to comply with environmental and social clauses.
- Absence of certified copy of the Categorization certificate or the Decision publishing the certified results.

NB: Depending on the specificity of the service, other relevant criteria may be added when drafting the Tender File

15.2 Essential criteria

Essential criteria are the fundamental or key ones that will help to measure the financial and the technical capacity of candidates to execute the services subject of the tender. They should be determined depending on the nature and the content of the services to be executed. It is necessary to clearly specify the modalities for validating a criterion from the number of sub-criteria to be respected

_____ The essential criteria for the qualification of bidders shall focus especially on:

- Financial capacity; (Access to a line of credit or other financial resources, turnover, attestation of financial solvency);
- Methodology.

NB: [Indicate the main qualification criteria which show that the bidder has the required technical capacities and resources to successfully execute the contract]. [These criteria will be detailed in Article 6.1 of the RPAO] .

16. Attribution

The contracting authority will award the contract to the bidder whose bid is evaluated to be in accordance with the tender documents (having the technical and financial capacity required to perform the contract satisfactorily) and whose tender has been evaluated as the lowest.

Bidders who present anormally low bids would be disqualified following regulation in place which prescribes obtention the expertise of Public Contract Regulatory Agency (PCRA) after seeking explanation from the bidder concerned.

The successful bidder is invited to present as soon as possible after signing of the award decision, than within seven days and under penalty of annulment of that decision awarding the Bamboutos divisional office of Mbouda (service of economic and financial affairs) for the establishment and the subscription of its market. Failure to appear, the contract is awarded to the next.
