Article 14: Corruption and fraudulent practices

The Chairpersons and Members of Tenders' Board as well as the Suppliers should at all times comply with the strictest rules of professional ethics. More especially, they should refrain from corruption or any form of fraudulent practices. By virtue of this principle, the expressions hereunder shall be defined as follows:

- (a) Whoever offers, gives, solicits or accepts any benefit whatsoever to influence the action of a State Worker during the award or execution of a jobbing order shall be guilty of "corruption", and
- (b) Whoever provides, solicits or accepts several quotations tendered by the same Supplier under different corporate names and/or under different registration numbers shall be guilty of "corruption",
- (c) Whoever deforms or distorts facts in order to influence the award or execution of a jobbing order in a manner prejudicial to the Project Owner indulges in "Fraudulent practices".

“Fraudulent practices” shall comprise any understanding or collusion of bidders (before or after submission of the bid) seeking to artificially keep the bid prices at levels not corresponding to those resulting from free and open competition, thus depriving the Project Owner of the benefits of competition.

- a) Within a maximum deadline of fifteen (15) days from the date of notification of the Administrative Order to commence execution, the Contractor shall submit in six (6) copies for the approval of the project owner after the endorsement of the Contract Engineer the execution programme of the works. This programme shall be exclusively presented according to the furnished models.

Two (2) copies of these documents will be returned to him within a deadline of fifteen (15) days from the date of reception with:

- Either the indication "GOOD FOR EXECUTION";
- Or the indication of their rejection including the reasons for the said rejection.

The Contractor has eight (8) days to present a new draft. The Contract Manager or the Project Manager then has a deadline of five (5) days to give his approval or possibly make comments. Delay in approving the draft execution schedule shall stay the execution deadline.

The approval given by the Project Owner does not in any way release the Contractor of his responsibilities. Meanwhile, works executed before the approval of the programme shall neither be ascertained nor paid for. The updated and approved schedule will become the Contractual schedule. The Contractor shall constantly update on site, a schedule that will take account of real progress of the site. Significant modifications may only be made on the Contractual programme upon receiving the approval of the Project engineer. After approval of the execution schedule by the Contract Manager, the latter shall transmit it within five (5) days to the Delegated Contracting Authority without staying its execution. However, if important modifications alter the objective of the Contract or the nature of the works, the Delegated Contracting Authority shall return the execution schedule accompanied by reservations to be lifted within fifteen (15) days of the date of reception.

Article 12: RECEPTION OF WORKS

12.1 Technical Reception

Before the acceptance of the works the Contractor shall ask in writing to the Contract Engineer, to organize a technical visit for pre-acceptance. This visit shall include the following operations.

- Qualitative and quantitative evaluations of the different supplies that have been executed.

We pledge to pay to the Delegated Contracting Authority an amount up to the maximum of the sum referred to above upon reception of the first written request, without the Delegated Contracting Authority having to justify his request, given, however, that in his request the Delegated Contracting Authority shall note that he is due the amount he is claiming because one or the other or both of the above condition(s) has (have) been fulfilled and he shall specify which condition(s) took effect.

This bond shall enter into force from the date of signature and from the date set by the Delegated Contracting Authority for the submission of bids. It shall remain valid up till the thirtieth day inclusive following the end of the deadline for the validity of bids. Any request by the Delegated Contracting Authority to cause it to take effect should reach the bank by registered mail with an acknowledgement of receipt before the end of this period of validity.

This bond shall, for purposes of its interpretation and execution, be subject to Cameroon law. Cameroon courts shall be the only jurisdictions competent to rule on this commitment and its consequences.
